OCTOBER

2011

PREPARED BY THE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE

JAMES C. CONDOS
SECRETARY OF STATE

We are pleased to publish this 2011 Guide to Civil Government.

The 2011 Guide to Civil Government includes information designed to help citizens access Vermont State government. It includes a directory of the Executive Branch, the Vermont State courts and State agencies. The guide also includes a listing of all boards and commissions, the names of the people who are currently serving and their terms of office.

The 2011 Guide to Civil Government is a companion publication to the Vermont Legislative Directory, which provides a directory and biographical sketches of the legislature and state wide office holders.

We hope that you find this guide useful. For more information please visit our website at www.sec.state.vt.us.

UNITED STATES SENATOR

SENATOR PATRICK LEAHY

United States Senator - Democrat, Vermont

Patrick Leahy of Middlesex was elected to the United States Senate (1974) and remains the only Democrat – and, when elected at 34, the youngest person – elected to this office from Vermont. In December 2008, Leahy became the longest serving senator from Vermont. Leahy was born in Montpelier and grew up near the Statehouse. He graduated from Saint Michael’s College (1961) and received his Juris Doctoris from Georgetown University Law Center (1964). He served eight years as State’s Attorney in Chittenden County and was selected (1974) as one of three outstanding prosecutors in the United States. In his sixth term, Leahy is the fourth most senior member of the Senate, a senior member of the Agriculture and Appropriations Committees, and Chairman of both the Judiciary Committee and the State and Foreign Operations Appropriations Subcommittee. He is co-chair of the Senate National Guard Caucus and co-chair of the Congressional Internet Caucus. He co-authored the Northeast Interstate Dairy and the Milk Income Loss Compensation program and is the father of the national organic standards and a variety of other farm, conservation and environmental initiatives, including efforts to protect Lake Champlain. He wrote the charter for the first-responder grant program (2001) and the Innocence Protection Act (enacted 2004). He wrote the first law in the world banning the export of landmines, and the Leahy War Victim’s Fund is used worldwide to help landmine victims. Leahy and his wife, Marcelle Pomerleau Leahy, native of Newport, Vt., live on a tree farm in Middlesex and have five grandchildren. Post Office Address: 199 Main Street, Burlington, VT, 05401, or United States Senate, Washington, DC, 20510.

GOVERNOR

Governor Peter Shumlin is a small business owner, public servant and father of two from Putney, Vermont.

A committed entrepreneur, Peter was the longtime co-director, along with his brother, of Putney Student Travel and National Geographic Student Expeditions, a company that sends students on educational programs and service projects across the globe. He is also a partner in several real estate companies that provide housing and commercial space in Southeast Vermont.

His career in public service began almost 30 years ago when at the age of 24 he was elected to serve on the town's select board. In 1990, Governor Madeleine Kunin appointed Peter to fill an empty seat in the Vermont House of Representatives, where he served for 3 years. He then served Windham County for 8 terms in the VT Senate and was elected by his colleagues to lead the Senate as President pro tem the majority of that time.

As Governor, Peter is determined to get tough things done. Since his inauguration, he has been working hard to create jobs for those who need them and raise incomes for those who have jobs, control skyrocketing health care costs, expand broadband and cell service to every corner of the state, reduce recidivism, invest in quality education opportunities, and rebuild our roads and bridges. Taken together, these and other key goals represent an ambitious agenda to create a brighter economic future for Vermonters.

Peter, 55, is the father of two daughters Olivia, 20, and Rebecca, 19. In his free time he enjoys running, hiking and cross country skiing. He likes to fish, hunt and garden and can sometimes be found spreading manure and cutting hay at his farm.

CHIEF OF STAFF

Bill Lofy is Chief of Staff for Governor Peter Shumlin of Vermont. He has 16 years of experience managing political and policy initiatives at the state, national, and international levels. Lofy was a senior advisor to Senator Paul Wellstone of Minnesota, strategist for the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, and advisor to numerous national political campaigns. He holds a master's degree in public affairs from the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University, and is the author of an acclaimed biography of Wellstone and co-author of two campaign management books. A former Peace Corps Volunteer in the Cape Verde Islands in West Africa, Lofy also served as a development worker in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

SECRETARY OF CIVIL & MILITARY AFFAIRS

Alexandra MacLean is Governor Shumlin's Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs. In this position she serves as the Administration's liaison to the General Assembly. Prior to this position she most recently served as Governor Shumlin's campaign manager. In this role she successfully helped Senator Shumlin win both the primary and the general election to become Vermont's next governor. Prior to the campaign, Alex served as Shumlin's aide in the Senate President Pro Tem's office. In addition to serving for three years in these roles, she holds a master's degree in history from the University of Edinburgh in Scotland. Alex grew up in the North East Kingdom of Vermont and continues to reside there today.
